Description: This offering is a combination course of the CERT TtT & Teen CERT TtT. The CERT TtT course prepares participants to teach the Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) course to volunteers in their communities at classes sponsored by their local jurisdiction. Course content, instructional methodology and administrative considerations for implementing the program are covered. Participants must be sponsored by their local jurisdiction and have completed CERT basic training. Course prerequisites will not be waived.

Teen CERT Module Description: Teen CERT training applies the CERT model to high school students and campuses. The Teen CERT Train-the-Trainer Course prepares instructors to deliver the CERT training to high school students and to work with school administrators to establish and maintain the training.

Prerequisites: Refer to the pre-requisite checklist/application to ensure that you are eligible to attend the course.

Target Audience: Local and County Emergency Management, Fire, Law Enforcement, and EMS personnel.

Obtain Application: STEP 1 – Applications are available online at http://www.azdohs.gov/CommPrep.asp. If you have questions about the application, Contact Cheryl Bowen, Citizen Corps coordinator at AZDOHS (602) 542-7077, cbowen@azdohs.gov.
